

ABOUT THE SUMMIT

We invite you to attend the Emotional Intelligence and Social Mobility Summit at Clayton State University in Morrow, Georgia from July 9 to 11, 2025. This dynamic three-day event will explore the critical intersections of Emotional Intelligence (EI) and Social Mobility, and examine the emerging role of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in these areas.

In today's rapidly evolving landscape, characterized by social media and the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic, the importance of emotional intelligence has never been more pronounced. As we navigate a world increasingly mediated by technology, fostering meaningful human connections is essential to combat social isolation and enhance community engagement.

This summit will cater to a diverse audience, including business leaders, educators, healthcare professionals, clergy, community advocates, law enforcement, public health, and mental health specialists. Participants will gain valuable insights into how El can serve as a catalyst for talent development, workforce enhancement, and broader economic growth, all of which are vital for improving social mobility within our communities.

Attendees can expect to engage with thought leaders on a variety of impactful themes, including:

- Empowering Leadership: Explore how emotional intelligence can drive positive change in organizations and enhance talent development.
- Building Resilient Communities: Discover strategies to foster social cohesion and support systems that promote social mobility.
- Workforce Development: Examine the integration of EI in training programs to boost employee engagement and career advancement.
- Navigating Digital Interactions: Discuss the impact of technology on emotional well-being and the importance of El in maintaining meaningful connections.
- Ethical Decision-Making: Investigate the role of El in navigating ethical dilemmas, particularly in Al.
- Clergy and El: Explore how emotional intelligence can enhance pastoral care and strengthen congregational relationships.

- Mental Health Integration: Learn to incorporate emotional intelligence into therapy to improve client engagement and resilience.
- Supporting Educators and Students: Engage with strategies for integrating emotional intelligence into educational curricula, enhancing teaching practices, and promoting student well-being.

This summit promises to equip participants with practical tools and strategies but also encourages collaboration and dialogue aimed at fostering social mobility through enhanced emotional skills.

Join us for this transformative experience and be part of a movement that seeks to elevate individual potential and strengthen community bonds through emotional intelligence. We will pave the way for a more connected and equitable future.

PRESENTATION FORMAT

Keynote Presentation:

The keynote presentation sets the tone and theme for the Emotional Intelligence and Social Mobility Summit. This 1.5-hour session is designed to be informational, inspiring, and engaging. Delivered by a renowned speaker, the keynote will equip participants with essential knowledge, tools, and motivation for personal and professional growth. This presentation aims to ignite a spark within the audience, fostering a deep commitment to enhancing emotional intelligence and driving social mobility. The speaker's insights will serve as a catalyze for the day's discussions and activities.

Demonstration/Skill Building Session:

These sessions provide attendees with hands-on, practical skills that can be immediately applied in various professional contexts, including clinical practice, education, and leadership. Featuring live demonstrations, role-playing, and step-by-step instructions, participants actively engage and practice the skills being taught, receiving feedback from the presenter. Each session is interactive and experiential, ensuring that participants leave with real examples and practical tools to enhance their effectiveness, maximize their potential, and achieve greater success in their work environments.

Workshop/Interactive Presentation:

Workshops and interactive presentations are designed to involve attendees in collaborative and engaging learning experiences. Presenters use a mix of lectures, group activities, and discussions to deeply explore topics related to emotional intelligence and social mobility. This format encourages dialogue, problem-solving, and peer learning, reinforcing concepts and ensuring the practical application of ideas. Participants will work together to develop strategies and solutions that can be implemented in their respective fields.

Panel Discussion:

A panel discussion brings together experts from diverse backgrounds to share their perspectives on specific topics related to emotional intelligence and social mobility. Moderated by a facilitator, each panelist offers unique insights, followed by a Q&A session with the audience. This format fosters a rich discussion of multiple viewpoints, trends, and challenges, providing a well-rounded exploration of the subject matter. Attendees will gain a deeper understanding of the complexities and opportunities within the fields of emotional intelligence and social mobility.
